

Year 1
TERM ONE:

440.201.3 Introduction to Teaching English Language Arts (K-3)

Suitable instructor resources from DCI library listings:

Book # 345 Stories/legends/poems

Foster, Cyndi and Gray, Debbie. Ublumi Cambridge Bay, N.W.T.

This picture book talks about a day in the life of a young person in the Arctic. It presents the story in illustrations with blank lines at the bottom of each picture to provide the readers opportunities to personalize the story as they understand it.

Book # 447 Elders

ISBN 0-920897-03-7

Meili, Dianne (1992) THOSE WHO KNOW Profiles of Alberta's Native Elders Edmonton, Alberta. NeWest Publishers Limited

This book profiles thirty-one elders of Alberta. Each offers her/his experienced spiritual life stories whether it was at a bush camp, residential school or incarceration. Through their experienced life stories information of fasting, praying, healing, helping birth and counseling were shared. The author presents the elders' stories in an explicit explanation.

Book #276 Education - Dene

Student Manual: Land People Tribe Language

This unit covers how stories and designs are integral parts of Dene culture and how these differ from language group to language group.

July 2004

---

Book #277 Education - Dene

Student Manual: Then and Now

This unit covers how each language group relates to groups that are similar and different in culture.