

Year 2
TERM TWO:

195.203.3 NATST

Suitable instructor resources from DCI library listings:

Book # 100 Aboriginal Rights –Self Government

ISBN 0-88784-533-9

Engelstad, Diane and Bird, John (1992) Nation to Nation: Aboriginal Sovereignty & the Future of Canada Concord, Ontario. House of Anansi Press Limited

This book contains thirty essays by natives and non-natives on topics such as Native perspective on Canadian history, sovereignty, land claims policy, land stewardship, residential school issues etc. As indicated, it is a timely book towards strengthening of relationships.

Book # 101 Aboriginal Rights –Self Government

ISBN 0-8020-2524-2 –cloth

ISBN 0-8020-6539-paper

Little Bear, Leroy, Boldt, Menno & Long, J. Anthony (1989) Pathways to Self-Determination Canadian Indians and the Canadian State. Canada. University of Toronto

This book is by Aboriginal contributors that present their perspectives and positions in the Canadian government while non-Aboriginal scholars take an approach to examine the constraints upon and requisites for the development of self-government.

July 2004

Book ID # 33 Heritage Archaeology

ISBN 0-86491-181-5

Nicholas, George P. and Andrews, Thomas D. (1997) AT A CROSSROADS Archaeology and First Peoples in Canada. Burnaby, British Columbia. Archaeology Press Department of Archaeology, Simon Fraser University

This is the work of various archaeologists in the northern and western parts of Canada in cooperation with the Aboriginal people especially those that continue to speak their language and maintain their traditional culture. This collection of papers constitutes the basis of a collaborative effort which in the past has not been a practice of the archaeologists. It is a documentation of the past in a new way at the present time. Areas of interest that might be considered are in part 2 under the heading, 'Traditional Knowledge and Archaeology. Some of the topics are as follows: Gwich'in Traditional Knowledge and Heritage Studies in the Gwich'in Settlement Area, the Idaa Trail: Archaeology and the Dogrib Cultural Landscape and Ancient Knowledge of Ancient Sites which talks about the legend of Yamoria that all Athapaskan language groups know.