

Year 2
TERM TWO:

440.209.3 Integrated Language Arts (Grades 4-9)

Suitable instructor resources from DCI library listings:

Book ID # 1187 Language – General

Fettes, Mark (2000) Stabilizing What? An Ecological Approach to Language Renewal pp 1-15 Northern Arizona University

This author's doctoral dissertation talks of developing a way to think about the Aboriginal language. In the content of his paper, he focuses on the meaning of effective, language and renewal to argue his point.

Book ID # 345 Stories/legends/poems

Foster, Cyndi and Gray, Debbie. Ublumi Cambridge Bay, N.W.T.

This picture book talks about a day in the life of a young person in the Arctic. It presents the story in illustrations with blank lines at the bottom of each picture to provide the readers to personalize the story as they understand it.

Book # 1604 Health –Alcohol & Drugs

Halper, Judy and Kauppi, Virginia (1992) PROJECT CHARLIE DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION PROGRAM Edina, Minnesota

This is the fourth edition of Project Charlie for grades K - 3. It is an alcohol and drugs prevention program however; it recognizes the importance of the alcohol and drugs disease and effects. It includes lessons to address it. It comes with an improved Scope and Sequence Section which includes a Curriculum Infusion Chart. The program covers self-awareness, relationships, decision making and chemical use in society units, suggested samples and information and resources.

Book # 1605 Health –Alcohol & Drugs

July 2004

Halper, Judy and Kauppi, Virginia (1992) PROJECT CHARLIE DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION PROGRAM Edina, Minnesota

This is the fourth edition of Project Charlie for grades K - 6. It is an alcohol and drugs prevention program however; it recognizes the importance of the alcohol and drugs disease and effects. It includes lessons to address it. It comes with an improved Scope and Sequence Section which includes a Curriculum Infusion Chart. The program covers self-awareness, relationships, decision making and chemical use in society units, suggested samples and information and resources.

Book # 1115 Health –Alcohol & Drugs

National Native Association of Treatment Directors (1989) IN THE SPIRIT OF THE FAMILY Saskatoon, SK. Apex Graphics Ltd.

This is a family systems treatment intervention handbook for Native Alcohol and Drug Counselors. It is based on a wolf family unit. The directors of this handbook believe that the wolf family appears to exhibit cohesion, loyalty, fortitude, integrity and protectiveness. It is on this great harmony that lessons were developed to help counselors rebuild and strengthen families.

Book # 33 Heritage Archaeology

ISBN 0-86491-181-5

Nicholas, George P. and Andrews, Thomas D. (1997) AT A CROSSROADS Archaeology and First Peoples in Canada. Burnaby, British Columbia. Archaeology Press Department of Archaeology, Simon Fraser University

This is the work of various archaeologists in the northern and western parts of Canada in cooperation with the Aboriginal people especially those that continue to speak their language and maintain their traditional culture. This collection of papers constitutes the basis of a collaborative effort which in the past has not been a practice of the archaeologists. It is a documentation of the past in a new way at the present time. Areas of interest that might be considered are in part 2 under the heading, ‘Traditional Knowledge and Archaeology. Some of the topics are as follows: Gwichin Traditional Knowledge and Heritage Studies in the Gwich’in Settlement Area, the Iida Trail: Archaeology and the Dogrib Cultural Landscape and Ancient Knowledge of Ancient Sites which talks about the legend of Yamoria that all Athapaskan language groups know.

July 2004

Book # 12 Museums-Archives/Collection

Our Lady of the Snows Mission Colville Lake, Northwest Territories

This booklet celebrates the silver anniversary of Our Lady of the Snow Mission foundation. In its chronology, it follows the trial and error of Rev. Bernard W. Brown O.M.I. and the five Senior high school students that volunteered to help build the mission in Colville Lake.