

Invitation to Attend

'Your Career is a lifelong journey... Travel with those who know the road'

Do you make a living helping others? If you are a career practitioner, community developer, consultant, counselors, employment officer, human resource practitioner, or teacher, then this is the conference for you!

The Department of Education, Culture and Employment invite you to attend the 2008 LINX Conference. It will be held at the Explorer Hotel on Wednesday, February 27th and Thursday, February 28th, 2008.

Dynamic keynote speakers and informative workshops will cover a variety of topics that will be crucial for professional development and provide dynamic insight into the constantly changing field of career development and education.

Last years Display and Meet session was a success and we would again like to offer the opportunity for individuals and organizations to display information about their programs, products or services.

Registration deadline is February 8th 2008

Participants are responsible for their own accommodations and expenses.

A copy of Conference at a Glance will be emailed/faxed to you.
