

Official Languages of the NWT

This map shows the approximate geographic areas where the NWT's various Indigenous languages have historically been spoken. Although the names of languages and dialects vary from community to community, the language regions outlined in the map represent widely used and agreed upon designations.

French is mostly spoken in Hay River, Fort Smith, Inuvik and Yellowknife. English is spoken throughout the NWT.