Aurora College and Polytechnic University Governance

As part of the transformation of Aurora College into a polytechnic university, the Government of the Northwest Territories (GNWT) committed to establishing a new governance system for the institution. In order to support input from Indigenous governments and key stakeholders, the GNWT has drafted a discussion paper that describes a proposed governance system and how it will help ensure an effective, efficient and sustainable Aurora College and polytechnic university that are able to operate at arm's length from government.

Please download this form and use it to provide your thoughts on the discussion paper.
