

Northern Distance Learning (NDL): 2020-21 YEAR IN REVIEW

EQUITY

Education bodies involved
Beaufort-Delta | Sahtu | Dehcho
South Slave | Tłıchǫ

Farthest distance between students

Communities:
19

Tuktoyaktuk
& Ft. Resolution
1280km

TEACHERS:

21

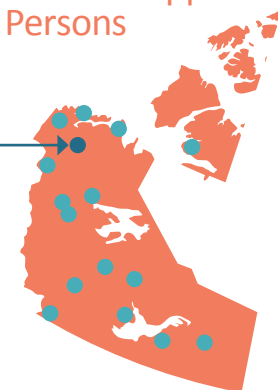

In-class Support
Persons

7 NDL teachers

Location of all teachers: Inuvik

East Three Secondary School

STUDENTS

of students 92

2.50

Average # of courses taken per student

299
students

have participated in NDL since 2014
(includes Inuvik until 2018)

CHANGES DURING COVID-19

UPSIDE

17%

increase in # of credits earned over the previous year

8%

increase in enrolment
over the previous year

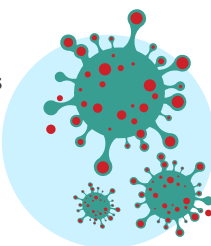

DOWNSIDE

29%

of courses were dropped, likely due to COVID-19

9%

is the average # of courses dropped in pre-COVID years

NDL students by grade

Grade 10
53

Grade 12
16

Grade 11
23

COURSES

231

Total number of course
enrolments

 19

courses
offered

Courses offered

Social Studies 10-1, 20-1, 30-1 | Math
10C | Math 20-1, 30-1 | Science 10 |
Chem 20 | Biology 20, 30 | Art 10, 20 |
English Language Arts 10-1, 20-1, 30-1

* 4 of these courses were offered as double sessions

POST-SECONDARY BRIDGING EXPERIENCE

Virtual Post-secondary Bridging

Algonquin College
Camosun College
Capilano University
MacEwan University
Mt. Royal University
Southern Alberta Institute of Technology
Thompson Rivers University

May 5, 7, 11, 2021

Student panels, interviews, and presentations from 7
post-secondary institutions took place online due to COVID-19 restrictions.

280

of Gr. 10-12
students that participated

POST-SECONDARY PURSUITS

61%

of NDL graduates applied to post-secondary programs

93%

of the applicants were accepted

Government of Northwest Territories

ACHIEVEMENTS

72%

% courses passed

19%

of courses passed with scores 80% or higher

46%

of courses passed
with scores of 65% or higher

NDL students achieved success in many kinds of courses. This is an art project "Football" from the NDL program at Deh Gáh Elementary and Secondary School in Fort Providence.