

2022 NWT EDUCATION HALL of FAME

Information on the Nomination Process

Annually, the Department of Education, Culture and Employment (ECE) issues a call for nominees for induction into the NWT Education Hall of Fame. This award recognizes and celebrates those who have provided exemplary service and/or assistance in the field of education.

Eligible recipients for this honour include:

Administration Staff	Counsellors	Corporate Sponsors
Aurora College Board Members	Custodians	Indigenous Governments
Aurora College Faculty	Elders	NWTTA Staff
Aurora College Staff	Principals	PAC Members
Board Trustees	Students	Coaches
DEA/DEC Members	Support Assistants	Volunteers
Superintendents	Teachers	Posthumous Award

Selection Process:

A selection committee consisting of representatives of ECE, of the Northwest Territories Teachers' Association (NWTTA) and of education Superintendents will review each nomination and identify the successful nominees based on set criteria.

In addition, each year, the Minister of Education, Culture and Employment may select to induct a Minister's Choice Award recipient at his or her discretion. This decision may be made independently of the scoring selection process.

Nomination Package

To be considered by the selection committee, a nomination package must contain:

- Personal contact information for both the nominee and the nominator
- One letter of support and/or reference
- Signature from the nominee indicating that they are aware of the nomination or signature from the nominator indicating that the nominee is aware of the nomination

The deadline for all nominations is April 8, 2022.

Conditions and Criteria

To be considered as an eligible candidate, a nominee:

- Must be a current resident of the Northwest Territories for at least five years, or must have been a resident for more than 15 years if currently residing outside the NWT
- Must have made a significant, long-term contribution to education in the NWT
- Must be independently motivated by a genuine desire to make a difference

Each nomination will be evaluated using the following equally graded criteria:

1. Contributions to the Profession: How the individual or group has contributed to education in the Northwest Territories
2. Leadership Skills: How the individual or group has demonstrated leadership combined with a contribution to education
3. Support for Indigenizing Education: How the individual or group supported and encouraged Indigenous cultures and languages
4. Breadth of Impact: How the individual or group has impacted an individual, school, colleagues and community
5. Contribution to Community: How the individual or group has been involved, supported or led community-based activities
