Borrow by Mail Program

www.nwtpls.gov.nt.ca

How does the Borrow by Mail Program work?

- Apply for your free NWT Library Card.
- Decide what you want to borrow.
- Contact NWT Public Library Services and tell them what you want to borrow.
- Receive your items through the mail for free!
- Check the date that you need to send your items back.
- Use the free shipping label to mail your items back to the library.
- Borrow more!

What items can I borrow?

You can borrow up to five (5) items at one time!

- Books
- Audio books
- e-Books
- DVDs, including movies and TV series.

Borrow by Mail is great for:

- Research on school projects
- Discovering new interests
- Watching your favourite movies, and more!

How do I find items?

Search the library database for the items you want, at www.nwtpls.gov.nt.ca.

Borrow e-books at nwt.freading.com. NWT Public Library Services can help you register.

If you can't find what you are looking for, ask NWT Public Library Services – simply email or phone them!
